Families From Village Wetheral

Compiled by Frank E. Wetherell — 1949 Supplement, Full Transcription With Original Scans (Pages 2–95)

Note on transcription confidence: Pages 39–56 and 74–95 are transcribed with high confidence from the original scans. Pages 57–73 contain a dense, faintly-printed multi-generation pedigree chart (the Gyles Wetherell of Stockton-on-Tees line, list D5) organized in numbered columns; these pages are transcribed as a best-effort reading and some names, dates, or relationship numbers may be uncertain due to scan quality.

FAMILIES FROM VILLAGE WETHERAL.

PART I; SUPPLEMENT 1949.

FOREWORD.

Writing a family history is, obviously, a continuous process. Our WETHERAL family grows; and the listing becomes more and more complicated as new names are found. I sent out about 500 questionnaires to all I could find the addresses of, and received many replies. Those with several new lists are included in this Supplement.

I would suggest that you check through the Supplement for changes in your list, if any. You can make minor changes and corrections in the 1948 Edition with pen and ink. Or if you prefer, and if the changes are too extensive, you can make some mark at the proper place; this mark to indicate that you will find changes in the Supplement.

Many are interested, but have so few records, and the information is so meagre. Many widows know so little about their husband's family history. And if true, there may be family strife and other detrimental items; these can be recorded or not, to suit your taste and fancy. After a few deaths or other calamities, families might become re-united. But do include the names, dates, etc., just as though everybody was friendly. The HISTORY is what is wanted. Begin now, and keep it up; get your children interested so that they will add to it as their family grows.

Record every birth, death, marriage, etc., together with items of any personal achievement which might be interesting. You cannot tell enough to satisfy the future generations. Items which seem of little importance today, in the future, they will "eat them up". Include all lines and branches. The female lines will involve many sur-names and other families. They may be of considerable interest. Index these sur-names for ready reference.

Write to your relatives for data. They may think it a great bother. Get all you can. I am sure that once started, all will find it most interesting. Keep your history where you can see it frequently, to remind you to put the new items down promptly.

Make lists of all Wetherals, cariously spelled, that you can find. Middle names too are oftentimes important in locating connections; include these when known. If I can help you in any way, do write to me. Let's all unite to make this a general family chore. It is lots of fun too. Dont hesitate to send me your criticisms and suggestions about any of my lists, my system of numbering, or any thing you might think would help.

Did you receive your copy of the 1948 Edition of "Families From Village Wetheral"? If you did not, please let me know at once as I have only a few copies left

I am disappointed and sorry that some of these pages are so dim. It was the fault of the typing. I re-wrote several pages which were illegible. Write me if you cannot decipher some of the information you especially want and which you cannot make out. Try a reading glass.

Sincerely

Frank E.Wetherell.

WETHERAL CLAN.

The suggestion that we form a Wetheral Clan has been meeting with favor and I believe we can start something of interest. Write me about your suggestions.

For the present, suppose each member or descendant having a different sur-name two or three generations removed, say if his or her great grandmother was a Wetheral, would entitle him to membership. We do not need to draw any definite line if some one was interested.

Get a list of names from the telephone directories and call on them, even though not spelled just as you do. Perhaps you can arrange for regional meetings. One important item, which makes for greater freedom and better feeling, is to make it a strict rule that everybody "Goes Dutch". Each paying his own expenses; no treating; no entertaining.

Look through the 1948 Edition; you will find a number of names and addresses. Get more from the various sources available. Make up your own list and I will appreciate it if you will send me any names with addresses you do not find on my list.

Formation of this Clan will help very much with our Family History. So make a start now.

WETHERAL PRIORY.

On the page of illustrations after page 5, in the 1948 Edition, is shown a view of "WETHERAL ABBEY". This should be "WETHERAL PRIORY". The view was taken from a picture post card, I bought in the village in 1947 and it was labeled Wetheral Abbey".

In Loftie's "History of the Parishes of Wetheral and Warwick", published by Brown & Brown, 75 Scotch Street, Carlisle, Co. Cumberland, is this statement; " It was never an Abbey, though so often called by the higher title; for the Benedictine custom was for the Mother House, in this case, St. Mary's at York, to be the one Abbey, the daughter monasteries were prisons or cells. "

"The Priory was founded, as far as we can tell, about the year 1106. The site was given to St Mary's at York by Rudolph Meschin, nephew of Hugh, Earl of Chester, who had been granted the whole of the district known as "The Honor of Carlisle" by King Rufus. He in his turn had seized it from the King of Scots, on some pretext or other, of a former connection with the Kingdom of England".

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Reuben W.Wetherill writes that he found in the Archives of the Historical Society of Penn. a record by Charles Wetherill, whom he thinks was an architect, two volumns about 11" by 19", finely hand printed and all laid out by diagrams with two pages of hand written history of the Wetherill family and origin of why these records were kept. He says in part; "In the early days, Kings gave leaders of their armed bands, who fought for them, large grants of land called "Feods" that could not be sold, but passed on to thrie oldest heir, and naturally they were at the King's call. That is the reason why we have these records of our ancestors. " January 20-1908.

SHORT HORN CATTLE.

It is said that a John Wetherell was the first breeder of Short Horn Cattle, in or near North Allerton, Yorkshire, England. I have not verified this, but would like to know about it if any one has the information.

THE MAYFLOWER

We have all been interested in the Mayflower and in the list of passengers. No Wetherals appear on the list but several names have family connections.

She sailed from Southampton, England, August 5-1620, with the Speedwell. Both ships put back to port. Then on 6/17 September, the Mayflower again sailed for Plymouth. She had on board 41 men and their families, 102 persons in all.

The passage was stormy; 63 days; they had intended to go to the mouth of the Hudson River, but were taken to Cape Cod. They landed at Plymouth, Mass. Dec. 11 or 21-1620-N.S. The anniversary is celebrated Dec. 22.

ENGLISH ORIGIN OF WILLIAM OF SCITUATE. (REV)

Genealogical Advertiser P 21 Communicated by Virginia Hall of Cambridge.

In a list of emigrants in the Hercules of Sandwich bound for New England is the record: "William Witherell of Maidstone, schoolmaster, Mary his wife 3 children and one servant. Certificate from Samuel Marshal, Mayor of Maidstone etc. Mar 1634." (Drake Founders of New England P 82).

Canterbury Marriage Licenses: Second Series P 1087; "Witherell, William M.A. of Maidstone about 25 and Mary Fisher of Boughton, Monchelsea, Maiden about 22 now under govt. of her mother, Jean Martin alias Fisher, now wife of John Martin s.p. yeom. who consents. At St Mildreds Cant. Mar 26-1627".

On an inquiry made by Dr. C.B. Witherle of Castine, Me. record was found of the admission of William Wetherell as sizer, Corpus Christi College, Cambridge in 1619. He is mentioned as coming from a town in Yorkshire, July 3. Cutter, New Eng. "Fam" says Rev Wm was a native of Yorkshire.

History of Scituate by Samuel Deane-Boston, James Loring 132 Washington St. 1831 Ministers of the Second Church and Society William Witherell B-1600 Not traced to England. Cotton Mather listing him as a minister in England is an error. The tradition here is that his mother was a daughter of John Rogers the Smithfield martyr. He arrived before 1634, was employed in a grammar school in Charlestown in 1635 and in Cambridge the two years following. (Note- although Savage questions his being in Charlestown there is a note in "The Learned Family" by William Law Learned pub in Albany 1882 by Joel Munsells Sons on page 7-"Feb 12-1637-8 it was referred to Mr. Greene and to William Learned to settle Mr. Witherell's wages for the past year. William Witherell was the schoolmaster)

In 1638 he moved to Duxbury where he purchased house and land of Edward Hall between farms of Ralph Partridge and Nicholas Robinson, probably farmed and taught school. He, however, was but poorly provided for, as we presume, in the latter calling at that day.

In 1640 with Thomas Weyborne he received a grant from the Colony Court of a considerable tract of land in Duxbury on the NW side of North Hill.

There was considerable controversy at Scituate over such matters as infant baptism and sharing communion with the members of the Church of England and William Witherell was of the moderate party, being willing to compromise such matters and throughout his life trying to unify the Church. He was invited to preach in Scituate by a Mr Vassal and made himself so acceptable to Mr Vassal and to the rest of Mr Chauncy's opponents that he was ordained pastor Sept 2-1645. The church at Duxbury took sides and refused to dismiss him, but at length, by advise of Elders of the Mass Bay, the church ordained him in the face of all opposition.

He had a house a few rods SE of the Secons Society's Meeting House on Wilson Hill where he resided during his life. Records of baptism were kept in his hand until 1674, after which Mr Mighill assisted with the records, but Mr. W.W. continued baptisms until Mar 16-1684 and died April 9-1684 as per Hobart's journal. He performed a total of 608 baptisms, some for people of neighboring towns where there was opposition to infant sprinkling, among which were families of Rogers in Marshfield and Governor Winslow's family. As the result of the efforts of W.W. the two churches of the town became reconciled and eventually united.

He wrote books and verses- "The Life of John Clapp of Scituate", and elegy on Mrs Sarah wife of John Cushing Esq. also an elegy on the death of Gov. Josiah Winslow in 1680.

"Upon the much to be lamented death of the thrice three times honored Josiah Winslow Esq. late Governor of New Plymouth and Carlo Charus, beloved of his Princi.

Within this sacred urn doth lie
The quintesence of the Colonie
New Englands Phoenix, Plymouth's Glory.
Meet subject for a compleat story etc.

(The entire elegy is in "The early planters of Scituate" by Harvey Hunter, Pratt published by the Scituate Historical Society 1929- $5.50)

Amoung the names referred to in the controversy were Tilden, Vinal, Damon, Briggs and Litchfield of the 1st Church and Hatch, Stockbridge, Torrey, Stetson, Clapp and Barslow of the 2nd Church.

Once during service W.W. stopped to say "Neighbor Bryant, it is to your reproach that you disturbed the worship by entering late, living as you do within a mile of this place, and especially so since Goody Barstow who has milked 7 cows, made a cheese and walked 5 miles to the house of God in good season." (This same John Bryant married the daughter of W.W., Elizabeth, 1657).

As the result of the efforts of William Wetherell the two churches of the town became reconciled and eventually united.

He wrote books and verses- "The Life of John Clapp of Scituate", and elegy on Mrs. Sarah wife of John Cushing Esq. also an elegy on the death of Gov. Josiah Winslow in 1680.

"Upon the much to be lamented death of the thrice three times honored Josiah Winslow Esq. late Governor of New Plymouth and Carlo Charus, beloved of his Princi.

Within this sacred urn doth lie

The quintessence of the Colonie

New Englands Phoenix, Plymouth's Glory.

Meet subject for a compleat story etc."

(The entire elegy is in "The early planters of Scituate" by Harvey Hunter, Pratt published by the Scituate Historical Society 1929- $5.50)

Among the names referred to in the controversy were Tilden, Vinal, Damon, Briggs and Litchfield of the 1st Church and Hatch, Stockbridge, Torrey, Stetson, Clapp and Barstow of the 2nd Church.

Once during service William Wetherell stopped to say "Neighbor Bryant, it is to your reproach that you disturbed the worship by entering late, living as you do within a mile of this place, and especially so since Goody Barstow who has milked 7 cows, made a cheese and walked 5 miles to the house of God in good season." (This same John Bryant married the daughter of William Wetherell, Elizabeth, 1657).

This history states that there was a John Witherell, probably a brother in Cambridge in 1635 and afterwards in Watertown.
Also a William Witherell in Taunton in 1645 or earlier who left descendants. Judge Witherell of Detroit, Michigan was his descendant.

SCITUATE MASS. History of Scituate- Deane.
William Witherell was born in the year 1600 but we have not been able to trace this worthy man into England or to learn anything of him before his arrival in this country, except, on the authority of Cotton Mather, who places him in the list of ministers who had been in that office in England. But we suspect this to have been an error. There is a tradition here, that has been handed down for truth, that his mother was the daughter of John Rogers, the Smithfield martyr. He arrived before 1634. The first notice we find of him is that he was employed in a grammar school at Charlestown in 1635, and also in Cambridge the two years following. In 1638 he moved to Duxbury where he purchased a house and land of Edward Hall.
As the town of Duxbury was provided with a pastor at this time, it is probable that Mr. Witherell was employed in Agriculture, and perhaps school teaching. He however, was poorly provided for, as we presume, in the latter calling at that day.
In 1644 affairs at Scituate had become ripened for the settlement of a minister in the Second Church and Mr Witherell, being of the moderate party, as it regarded the refusal to commune with members of the Church of England, and also an advocate of infant sprinkling, and withal and educated and a worthy man, was invited to preach and made himself so acceptable to Mr. Vassall and the rest of Mr Channing's opponents that he was ordained pastor Sept 2-1645. His ordination had been delayed for some time by the influence of Mr Channing, and the elders of Plymouth Colony who sided with him, and also by the church at Duxbury which refused to dismiss him; But at length, by advise of the elders of Mass. Bay, the church proceeded to ordain him in the face of all opposition.
Mr Witherell probably purchased or built a house on his removing to Scituate. It stood a few rods SE of the meeting house on what is now called Wilson Hill, where he resided during his life. From the records it appears that some paralytic affliction in 1674 compelled him to seek an assistant. He died April 9-1684 as shown in Hobart's Journal. He had been in the ministry nearly 39 years and had administered 608 baptisms.
Mr Witherell lived to see the two churches in this town brought to a happy reconciliation, to see the dispute between his parish and the First parish amicably settled, to see a new and more commodius house of worship erected by his society, and the wasting and sanguinary Indian Wars at an end.
We have heard of but few printed works of this venerable man. Cotton Mather commended a certain little book of Mr Witherell's (in which he was assisted by Mr Baker) viz; "The life of John Clapp of Scituate." This was the son of Mr Thomas Clapp, remarkable for his understanding and his piety, and who died on his approach to manhood.
Mr Witherell wrote verses, some of which are extant, and we can say of those which we have seen that they are vastly superior to those of Dunster who wrote a little earlier, particularly in point of versification. An elegy on Mrs Sarah, the wife of John Cushing, Esq. is extant, as also an elegy on the death of Gov Josiah Winslow written in 1680 when Mr Witherell was 80 years of age.
An anecdote is handed down which may serve to illustrate the manner of conducting the ministry. Mr Bryant entered the church after the services had commenced, and Mr Witherell, at the close of his prayer, thus addressed him; "Neighbor Bryant, it is to your reproach that you have disturbed the worship by entering late, living as you do within a mile of this place

WILLIAM WITHERELL, (D-1691) Wife Dorothy. Tradition says that he came over as a cabin boy for William Dunn, and that Dunn left Witherell in charge of his proprietary, with the understanding that it should be Witherell's if Dunn should never come back to claim it. The proprietary reverted to Witherell on this basis. Another authority says that this William may have been a nephew of Rev William Witherell of Scituate. He built the first house in Norton on the east side of Winnecunnet Pond, and is mentioned as a sergeant in an expedition the Indians in 1671. He was oldest sergeant in Capt Gorham's company and wounded in the Narragansett Swamp Fight in 1675. He served as constable 1662-76, as deputy 1671-85, and a selectman in 1685. Living on the main road to Boston he sometimes entertained travellers, and in 1685 a permit was issued to him to retail cider, beer, and spiritous liquors. A stone erected in 1889 marks the site of this "Ordinary". He was allowed 60 pounds silver as a pension in 1678. In 1659 he was credited with 28 acres of land on the basis of five heads. In 73 he was listed as sergeant in a campaign against the Dutch in N.Y. In 1675 William was listed as one of 96 heads of families at the beginning of King Phillips War. In 1682 on a military list Wm Witherell Sr. heads the list of the 2nd of four squadrons with a William Wetherell Jr under him. In 1683 his name on a deed was spelled "Witherell". in 1687 Wm. gave five acres of land to help pay for the minister's home. (Cutter considers Wm of Norton a nephew of Rev Wm of Scituate came over 1643. Sold Taunton home 1669 & went to Norton).

Clark's History of Norton.

This book is the source of most of the above. In addition it says; "Of the exact time Captain Dunn arrived in America we have no reliable account. It might have been just before the settlement of Taunton, and he might have brought over in his vessel many of the first settlers of the town; and as most of them were from the vicinity of Taunton, Eng it is possible that the birth place of Wetherell was in that neighborhood. The first reliable evidence we have of Wm Wetherell being in Taunton is in 1643 when his name appears on a list of males subject to military duty. "In 1659 he was rated for himself, wife, and three children. He probably married his wife, Dorothy, in or about 1650 for in 1673 both Sr. and Jr. were among the proprietors of the South Purchase of TAUNTON.

This William Wetherell mentions in his will his sons William, John, Ephriam (dead at the time) and his daughter Dorothy Wood, wife of William Wood. Her first husband was Elias Irish whom she married Aug 26-1674. He died 1677 and she married Wood in 1686.

(Note) On the gravestone of James Wetherell who died in 1837 it is stated that he was the great grandson of William Wetherell, first of the name in America. This we think is an error. Rev William Wetherell of Duxbury, and afterwards minister in Scituate, arrived in America in

WILLIAM WETHERELL, son of the first William, was born about 1650. He lived at the place where his father is supposed to have pitched his habitation, near the outlet of Winneconnet Pond. From the first settler, through him, are descended the present (1859) William Wetherell and William Wetherell Jr. who are believed to be the seventh and eighth generation of this name in regular succession. He M-1681 Elizabeth Newland and had four, probably more, children. He died about 1729.

WILLIAM WETHERELL JR. was the son of William last named and grandson of the first settler. The date of his birth is unknown. His wife Hannah and child Late of Freetown, were warned out of Norton July 20-1729. He is believed to have had a son William and other children, probably by a wife previous to Hannah, but no records of his family can be found.

JEREMIAH WETHERELL was the son of William and Elizabeth (Newland) and Wetherell, but when born is not known. He lived in the east part of the town and afterwards moved into Taunton. He M-Rachell Basset Mar 26-1713 and subsequently had a wife Sarah. He names three children in his will.

JOHN WETHERELL was the son of William the first settler and was B-1664. He settled at the place now (1859) owned by Thos Copeland. He was the original member of the church, one of the first board of selectmen, and one of the leading men of the town. His wife's name was Susannah Newland whom he M-abt 1687, and they had 8 children. He D-soon after 1747.

JOHN WETHERELL JR. son of John already mentioned was born Oct 8-1688 and is said to have been the first child born in Norton. He M-Hannah Brintnell (?) before 1715 and had five or more children.

From the first settler, through him, are descended the present (1859) William Wetherell and William Wetherell Jr. who are believed to be the seventh and eighth generation of this name in regular succession. He M-1681 Elizabeth Newland and had four, probably more, children. He died about 1729.

WILLIAM WITHERELL JR. was the son of William last named and grandson of the first settler. The date of his birth is unknown. His wife Hannah and child Late of Freetown, were warned out of Norton July 20-1729. He is believed to have had a son William and other children, probably by wife previous to Hannah, but no records of his family can be found.

JEREMIAH WETHERELL was the son of William and Elizabeth (Newland) and Wetherell, but when born is not known. He lived in the east part of the town and afterwards moved into Taunton. He M-Rachell Basset Mar 26-1713 and subsequently had a wife, Sarah. He names three children in his will.

JOHN WETHERELL was the son of William the first settler and was B-1664. He settled at the place now (1859) owned by Thos Copeland. He was the original member of the church, one of the first board of selectmen, and one of the leading men of the town. His wife's name was Susannah Newland whom he M-abt. 1687, and they had 8 children. He D-soon after 1747.

JOHN WETHERELL JR. son of John already mentioned was born Oct 8-1688 and is said to have been the first child born in Norton. He M-Hannah Brintnell (?) before 1715 and had five or more children.

Note-- Page 505- Dr Butler Witmarth was the illegitimate son of Peggy Coleman, grandson of James Coleman a native of Ireland whose wife's maiden name was Molly Wetherell (a descendant of the first settler) and.

Complaints were voiced by members of the Gloucester County Historical Society against the Army Corps of Engineers in not properly caring for these.

MRS. ROBERT WEATHERILL of Woodbury, president of the society, and Ralph S. Kurtz, a trustee, said the society was notified of the discovery and asked to examine the material being dredged from the river. This consisted of a brass H-hinge, a flint lock from a gun, a broad ax, manicure sissors, stirrups, a brass lock and a quaint jackknife engraved with the name "Pit". February 20-1945. Natzi is show down by Lt. Wetherill. Falls for German trick, but recovers and destroys foe. It took a lot of bullets to make the German quit, but First Lt. Willian G. Wetherill, of Rydal, Pa., had the bullets, he put them where they counted, and eventually the German quit.
The story of the young lieutenant's air battle over Ger. came today in an Army release from Headquarters of the First Tactical Air Force. He had been mentioned before in news dispatches last Oct. as taking part in one of the most skillful dive bombing attacks of France.
In his latest feat, 20 or 30 Ger. attacked the "Orange Tail" group of Thunderbolt fighters with which Lt. Wetherill was flying. He destroyed one Messerschmitt 109, and other pilots of the group destroyed three and damaged two.
Warning is given. Just as they finished a bombing run over the railroad yards at Pfortz, Germany, a warning of German fighters was called. "I spotted five coming my way". Lt. Wetherill said in his report. I headed for them; passed over the top and made sharp diving turn into the fourth plane's tail. He broke and we went into a tight spiral chase. Another Jerry tacked on to me and was accounted for by my wing man. After about three turns, my Kraut headed for the deck and leveled off at 2000 feet. I got in two good bursts, with hits all over the fuselage and wing roots. He started smoking badly, made another steep diving turn, and leveled out over the tree tops. I fired again and got more hits.
"The German pulled up to 1000 feet, as if he was going to bail out. Falls for trick. It was a trick, and I fell for it, pulling up alongside and waiting for him to jump. Instead, he swung down on me, firing. I was able to make a quick turn under him, and got in more bursts on the deck. This time he pulled up to 800 feet and bailed out. The chute blossomed and the plane crashed into the Rhine in the vicinity of Germersheim."
Lieutenant Wetherill, who has 12 Oak Leaf Clusters for his air medal, participated with the "Orange Tail" group in the bombardment of Brest and Metz before moving into Germany. Since arriving in France 27 days after D-day, they have flown for three of the four American Armies, and now are flying air-ground co-operation with the Seventh Army.

February 20-1945. Nazi is show down by Lt. Wetherill. Falls for German trick, but recovers and destroys foe. It took a lot of bullets to make the German quit, but First Lt. William G. Wetherill, of Rydal, Pa., had the bullets, he put them where they counted, and eventually the German quit.

The story of the young lieutenant's air battle over Ger. came today in an Army release from Headquarters of the First Tactical Air Force. He had been mentioned before in news dispatches last Oct. as taking part in one of the most skillful dive-bombing attacks of France.

In his latest feat, 20 or 30 Ger. attacked the "Orange Tail" group of Thunderbolt fighters with which Lt. Wetherill was flying. He destroyed one Messerschmitt 109, and other pilots of the group destroyed three and damaged two.

Warning is given. Just as they finished a bombing run over the railroad yards at Pfortz, Germany, a warning of German fighters was called. "I spotted five coming my way". Lt. Wetherill said in his report. I headed for them; passed over the top and made sharp diving turn into the fourth plane's tail. He broke and we went into a tight spiral chase. Another Jerry tacked on to me and was accounted for by my wing-man. After about three turns, my Kraut headed for the deck and leveled off at 2000 feet. I got in two good bursts, with hits all over the fuselage and wing roots. He started smoking badly, made another steep diving turn, and leveled out over the tree tops. I fired again and got more hits.

"The German pulled up to 1000 feet, as if he was going to bail out. Falls for trick. It was a trick, and I fell for it, pulling up alongside and waiting for him to jump. Instead, he swung down on me, firing. I was able to make a quick turn under him, and got in more bursts on the deck. This time he pulled up to 800 feet and bailed out. The chute blossomed and the plane crashed into the Rhine in the vicinity of Germersheim."

Lieutenant Wetherill, who has 12 Oak Leaf Clusters for his air medal, participated with the "Orange Tail" group in the bombardment of Brest and Metz before moving into Germany. Since arriving in France 27 days after D-day, they have flown for three of the four American Armies, and now are flying air-ground co-operation with the Seventh Army.

SEVERAL THOUSAND ATTEND WIDENER HEIRESS WEDDING. Bryn Mawr, Penn. (AP)

Ella Anne Widener, 20 year old heiress, was married Saturday to Court right Wetherill of Abington, Penn, in one of the most lavish wedding ceremonies in years in this socially-conscious suburban town on Philadelphia main line.

The bride's mother, Mrs Peter A.B.Widener, widow of the society horseman who was considered heir to one of Philadelphia's largest fortunes, said the ceremony at Episcopal Church of the Redeemer was attended by several thousand guests.

Big Reception.

The ceremony was followed by one of the biggest wedding receptions of all times in this area.

Mrs Wetherill, known to her friends as "Tootie" was involved in an egg throwing prank at Lexington, Ky, last October. She was fined $ 19.00 for tossing eggs outside a police radio room in what she called a "Hallowe-een prank".

Visiting at farm.

She was visiting at Hlemendorf Farm, home of her brother, Peter A.B. Widener, II at the time.

Wetherill is a graduate of Princeton University. He served overseas with the 84th Division during World War II.

The couple leaves Friday for a wedding trip to Europe.

Joseph Widener.

Mrs Wetherill is the granddaughter of Joseph L.Widener, multi-millionaire art collector. The latter was the son of P.A.B.Widener, financier and traction magnate. Mrs Wetherill's father died in April, 1945, at the age of 52. Her mother is the former Mrs Gertrude T.Douglas Peabody, whom he married in 1924.

Nov 27-1952. [illegible] Death breaks perfect comradship. Survivor released from pact made 50 years ago. (From our own correspondent) Bishop Auckland, Saturday.— Death severed yesterday one of the strangest friendships ever known between two brothers. They were James and John Wetherell, of Tow Law, Co. Durham, who claimed to be the oldest bachelor twins in the country. They claimed this distinction among many others, but now James has died at the age of 79.

The brothers had never been parted throughout the whole of their lives. Living together in the same little cottage in High Street for the last 73 years, they had eaten together, slept together and worked together. They began work on the same day as pit boys, and later became railway workers, employed on the same section of permanent-way as plate [illegible] layers. After 45 years service they retired on the same day. They had never been to a cinema, and had not ridden in a motor car.

Love story renewed. Their housekeeper was engaged to marry James over 50 years ago. But when marriage was mentioned, John began to fret. The three then made a pact— that she should look after them both and not marry the survivor. That day has come, but Adian for the moment John is too stunned to do anything but wonder why a perfect comradship of 79 years should have been broken in a day.

(Mrs Wetherall writes that these twins were her husband's first Cousins)

Mesa Verde; a Spanish padre in 1776 was the first to record observations of the strange Mesa Verde formations in southwestern Colorado. Had the Padre decided to climb the great mesa, he would have brought back the ever-greater news of the ancient stone dwellings its canyon walls contain. But it remained for two cattle men in 1888, Richard Wetherill and Charlie Mason, searching the Mesa for strayed cattle, to draw their horses upon the rim of one of the canyons seaming the mesa top and see the dwellings, since named the Cliff Palace, that continue to intrigue scientists and laymen.

Wetherill & brother are the first and oldest producers of white lead in the United States. Their industry was established in 1762 and it might further interest you to know that Mr. Samuel Wetherill, a great grandson of Christopher Wetherill, who established himself as a farmer in Burlington, N.J. in 1683, was born Apr 12-1736.

She tells how the British manufacturers tried to prevent the establishment of the cotton industry in the United States. Mrs Witherell went to Sheffield when seven years old, living there and in Clarksburg a few years, and finally settled in North Adams. There were not more than a dozen houses in the village then and only one mill, which was built by her brother. This stood where Marshall street now is, near Main, and cotton cloth was the product. The only church in the vicinity when Mrs Witherell first went there was the Friend's meeting house, which still stands in Adams. Mrs Witherell has four children. They are Edward, Albert, Ann Eliza and Evelina Witherell, all of North Adams. The two daughters live with their mother. There are three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Two of Mrs Witherell's sisters lived to be 94 years old.

Mesa Verde: A Spanish cadre in 1776 was the first to record observation of the strange Mesa Verde formations in Southwestern Colorado. Had the Padre decided to climb the great mesa, he would have brought back the even greater news of the ancient stone dwellings its canyon walls contain. But it remained for two cattle men in 1888, Richard Wetherill and Charlie Mason, searching the Mesa for strayed cattle, to draw their horses upon the rim of one of the canyons seaming the mesa top and see the dwellings, since named the Cliff Palace, that continue to intrigue scientists and laymen.

Wetherill & brother are the first and oldest manufacturers of white lead in the United States. Their industry was established in 1762 and it might further interest you to know that Mr Samuel Wetherill, a great grandson of Christopher Wetherill, who established himself as a farmer in Burlington, N.J. in 1683, was born Apr 12-1736.

(cont.) further interest you to know that Mr. SAMUEL WETHERILL, a great grandson of CHRISTOPHER WETHERILL, who established himself as a farmer in Burlington, N.J. in 1683, was born Apr. 12-1736. After an apprenticeship to a carpenter in Philadelphia (Mordecai Yarnell), we find him in 1762, established in this industry as a builder.

In 1775, as part owner and active manager of the "United States Company" he sold their product of cloth, the first manufactured in this country. His sales of cloth to the government, for the army of the Revolution, led to his expulsion from the Society of Free Quakers (then called Fighting Quakers), their meeting house being erected at the southwest corner of Arch and Fifth

Streets, on the gable-end of which was placed the tablet, "By general subscription, for the Free Quakers. Erected in the year of our Lord 1783; of the Empire 8."

In 1778, he added to his activities the drug, paint and chemical business, and from 1783 to 1809 imported white lead, etc. from London. His son, Samuel, born Apr. 27-1764, was engaged with his father in the importation and manufacture of paints, etc., under the firm-name of Samuel Wetherill & Son. In the year of 1804, they erected the first white lead works in the U.S.; but shortly after these were destroyed by fire under circumstances most conclusive that this means was adopted by the foreign manufacturers to destroy competition.

In 1808, they built new white lead works, during the erection of which the agent here of the foreign manufacturers of white lead urged his friend, Samuel Wetherill, to so construct the works that they might easily be altered into a brewery, assuring him of having instructions to crush the enterprise if used as a white lead factory. Determined however, to make white lead, their product came into market, when true to his threat, the foreigners' agent put down the price, and continued reduction might have crushed the industry but for the war of 1812 and subsequent tariff measures. With the motto, "Encourage your own manufacturers," placed over their store door, at No. 65 North Front Street, this firm continued until the death of the senior SAMUEL in 1816, when the survivor associated with him his four sons, under the name of Samuel Wetherill & Sons. Upon the death of SAMUEL WETHERILL, in 1829, his four sons associated under the firm-name of Wetherill & Brothers; but two of the brothers withdrawing in 1830, the remaining brothers, viz., John Price and William Wetherill, continued under the firm-name of Wetherill & Brother.

In 1853, John Price Wetherill died, but Dr. William Wetherill continued until 1872, when he also died, and was succeeded under the same firm-name by his three sons, John Waconb, William Henry, and Francis Dring, in the manufacture of white lead, red lead, litharge, and orange mineral, the drug business being disposed of the same year 1872. Two years later, the first and last-named sons retired, and the remaining partner continued the business under the firm-name of Wetherill & Brother.

In 1908, the surviving partner, William H. Wetherill, admitted into partnership with his two sons, Abel Proctor Wetherill and Webster King Wetherill. In 1909 these three incorporated the business under the same old name of Wetherill & Brother. Since the incorporation, Webster King Wetherill has resigned and William Henry Wetherill and Abel Proctor Wetherill have continued on until this time, the officers and directors of the corporation, the business having been carried on for over 164 years, through five generations of the family.

"WHO ARE YOU? A WETHERILL?" By Ruby Haskins Ellis. (Copy right by Public Ledger).

This family was for a long, long time established in the north of England--to which during the period of Scottish invasion, cattle or "wether" were driven for safety. Consequently from "wether-hole" originated the name.

This surname is well known in America. The first settlers came from County Durham and County Kent. The coat of arms shown above (the cut of this shows it the same as used on cover of 1948 Edition) was borne by the Wetherills', of County Durham. Gyles Wetherill was the Progenitor of this branch, and it was his descendant, Christopher, who became identified with the Quaker sect and came to America, settling in New Jersey in 1683. A man of considerable substance, Christopher furnished the site for the first Quaker meeting house in Burlington, N.J. He was a leader in his community and was appointed to many positions of trust and importance.

In the New-England Colony we find mention of William Witherell, schoolmaster and preacher, who came from County Kent, in 1635. He settled first in Charlestown, Mass., later removing to Scituate.

Another New England settler bearing the name of Wetherill, and no doubt a near relative of the preceding, was John. He established himself in Watertown, Mass., where he was freeman in 1642.

"Dr. R. B. Wetherill, Lafayette's globe trotter, is back home again after going more than half way around the world to visit the historic ruins of Angkor in Cambodia. It is there that are found some of the world's most wonderful architectural ruins.

Dr. Wetherill started for Angkor last year and took in the ruins of Aztecs, in Central America; went from the tomb of Tutankhamen to the land of the Incas in South America, and then back to the innermost jungles of Africa. He has been taking such jaunts for more than twenty-five years.

The Lafayette globe trotter's itinerary led from San Francisco to Hawaii, the Fiji Islands, New Zealand, Australia, Java, Singapore and Bangkok, Angkor, and the starting back, to Saigon, in French Indo China, Hong Kong and Shanghai, China; Kobe, Yokohama and Tokio, Japan, and then home.

For the first time in all his travels Dr. Wetherill took a motion picture camera, and he obtained about 2000 feet of real action. Approximately one hundred still pictures also were taken. He prizes most (cont) highly the motion pictures he took of native dances performed by South Sea Islanders and South Asiatics. He secured pictures of the Hula-hula, the Fiji dance, the Maori, Javanese, Siamese and Cambodian dances, and in Sian was able to hire the king's own dancers for $60.

Angkor, reached from Bangkok by train and ox cart, presents today the ruins of an ancient city, founded probably 500 B.C., and passing out of existence about 1500 A.D., Dr. Wetherill said. Its people, the Khmers, populated Angkor so that at one time there probably were a million inhabitants, Dr. Wetherill declared. The city was surrounded by a strong wall and there was every indication that the people were sturdy, aggressive, wealthy and highly civilized.

Outstanding among the ruins is Angkor-vat, or temple, which is located a short distance from the city. Dr. Wetherill asserted it probably was the world's outstanding building accomplishment, from an architectural standpoint. There is a great wall a mile long, completely covered by the finest of carvings, all in low relief. Walls, pillars, panels--all are of exquisite carving. It was estimated that it took approximately two hundred years to build the temple. The stone which had to be transported, probably was pulled by elephants, from the quarries twenty miles away. Little remains of Angkor except the ruins, which are in fair state of preservation, are visited by few persons because the heat is so oppressive and it is so far removed from the centers of population and civilization. Dr. Wetherill stayed there for a month to make a close study of the architecture and the carvings, seeking to relate them with the ruins in other parts of the world.

Coming back he found the streets of Yokohama and Tokio still lined with miles and miles of shacks, mute reminders of the great earthquakes and fire. Years will be required to rebuild, Dr. Wetherill said, but he believes they will be among the most beautiful cities in the world.

After a rest, Dr. Wetherill plans to visit Persia and the earth's wonders and secrets pull him away from home, Dr. Wetherill studies the life of the caravan. While he said there still is no place like the United States, and best of all Lafayette, Indiana.

William Fountaine Wetherill was married to Sarah Boughey Dec. 19-1835. Fathers, Mothers maiden name was Fountaine.
The next (?) Charlotte Wetherill. She married James Gloyd, lived in Crawford Co.
John Wetherill, I think he started for Australia when the gold fever broke and never was heard from and I think his name was John.
Ann Wetherill married a Mathews, Chester, O. I saw his son; he was 2nd lieutenant in the civil war. I used to write to him in war times. All at sudden the letters ceased. Father told me that he was in a severe battle the first lieutenant shot down, then counsin Joe Mathew took the place of the first and no sooner than took was shot down. Ann Mathews died early in life.
Mr. Alexander Wetherill married and lived in Richland Co. after moved to California.
Emily Wetherill married a man by the name of Osborn; lived near the black Forks I think near the black river when I was there everything overflowed.
Any Wetherill married a man by the name of Blair; lived in Richland Co. O.

Miss Matie Wetherill; as per your letter to the Post Master here relating to the whereabouts of Thomas Wetherill; the last I heard of him was at New Orleans. I believe I am related to him in case it is the one I think it is. Willian Fountain Wetherill grand mother and my father grandmother were sisters. Their names were Fountain and my fathers name was John C. Crampton. I think they were three boys and three girls. Alexander, Thomas, & Willian. I cannot remember the girls names but one of them married a man name of Blair & another to a Mr. Gloyd & a Mr. Mathews. Alexander Wetherill went to California. This is all that I can recollect. Hoping this may be of service to you and if so would like to hear from Yours truly, Mrs. L. A. Parker, 52 E. Emily Ave., Shelby, Ohio.

Miss Matie Wetherill, Spokane Washington, 1528 9th Ave., Dear Miss Wetherill; Yours of the 14th received with pleasure and I will endeavor to reply saying that I do not know what part of California Alexander went to and I am unable to say where his children are. I believe the Wetherills came from Echington, England. I think that is the name of the place and also the Fountaines came from Echington as far as I can remember my grandfathers name was Crampton and my grandmothers maiden name was Fountaine. My Grandfather Adam Crampton lived in _____ Lincolnshire, England. And Adam Crampton Jr.; also a son of Adam Crampton, Adam Jr. lived in Bicker England. My grandmother or my fathers mothers name was Fountaine and she had a sistor married to William Wetherill. Now this is as far as I can trace back. I was only 8 years old when my father came to America and I am now 73 years. So you see it is a long time to remember back. I just happened to think that a Mr. William Bimrose of Dunington, Lincolnshire England married a sister of my father. I am very sorry that I can not trace back any farther. Should you discover through our letters that I am related in any way I would appreciate it very much if you would kindly let me hear from you.

Copies of letters sent to Miss Matie Wetherill, Spokane, Washington, pertaining to members in lists L1 and Q1.

William Fountaine Wetherill was married to Sarah Boughey Dec. 19-1835. Fathers, Mothers maiden name was Fountaine.

The next (?) Charlotte Wetherill. She married James Gloyd, lived in Crawford Co.

John Wetherill, I think he started for Australia when the gold fever broke and never was heard from and I think his name was John.

Ann Wetherill married a Mathews, Chester, O. I saw his son; he was 2nd lieutenant in the Civil War. I used to write to him in war times. All-of-a-sudden the letters ceased. Father told me that he was in a severe battle when the First Lieutenant was shot down. Then cousin Joe Mathew took the place of the First Lieutenant and shortly after was shot down himself. Ann Mathews died early in life.

Emily Wetherill married a man by the name of Osborn; lived near the Black Forks I think near the Black River when I was there everything overflowed.

Amy Wetherill married a man by the name of Blair; lived in Richland Co. O.

Now Olive has fathers birth and death dates, William F. Wetherill Born 1806 and died July 7th, 1883.

Shelby O. 2-10-06.

Miss Matie Wetherill; as per your letter to the Post Master here relating to the whereabouts of Thomas Wetherill; the last I heard of him was at New Orleans. I believe I am related to him in case it is the one I think it is. William Fountain Wetherill grand-mother and my father grandmother were sisters. Their names were Fountain and my father's name was John C. Crampton. I think they were three boys and three girls, Alexander, Thomas, & William. I cannot remember the girl's names but one of them married a man name of Blair & another to a Mr. Gloyd & a Mr. Mathews. Alexander Wetherill went to California. This is all that I can recollect. Hoping this may be of service to you and if so would like to hear from you truly, Mrs. L. A. Parker, 52 E. Emily Ave., Shelby, Ohio.

Shelby Ohio. 2-19-06.

Miss Matie Wetherill, Spokane, Washington, 1528 9th Ave., Dear Miss Wetherill; Yours of the 14th received with pleasure and I will endeavor to reply saying that I do not know what part of California Alexander went to and I am unable to say where his children are. I believe the Wetherills came from Eckington, England. I think that is the name of the place and also the Fountaines came from Eckington as far as I can remember my grandfather's name was Crampton and my grandmothers maiden name was Fountaine. My Grandfather, Adam Crampton, lived in _____, Lincolnshire, England. And Adam Crampton Jr.; also a son of Adam Crampton, Adam Jr. lived in Bicker, England. My grandmother or my father's mother's name was Fountaine and she had a sister married to William Wetherill. Now this is as far as I can trace back. I was only 8 years old when my father came to America and I am now 73 years. So, you see it is a long time to remember back. I just happened to think that a Mr. William Bimrose of Dunnington, Lincolnshire England married a sister of my father. I am very sorry that I cannot trace back any farther. Should you discover through our letters that I am related in any way I would appreciate it very much if you would kindly let me hear from you.

A Doctor Richard Wetherill lives in Lafayette, Ind.
I feel I know Sarah R. Wetherill and her late (twin brother) whom we heard from every year since 1936. Isaac Wetherill wrote me from Chester, Pa. thought I might be kin as we spelled our name same. His grandfather came from Ireland to near Phila. Family lived in Chester in 1842, are members of the Society of Friends (Quakers). His father was John Wetherill the youngest of 13 children. He had a brother, Richard, who went West when a young man and settled at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. and then went to near Mancos, Colo. there took up Gov. land, had quite a large family of boys. This family keep in touch with each other. These boys were famous thru their finding Mesa Verde Cliff Dwellers ruins near Mancos Colo. and the first white man to see the Rainbow Bridge in Arizona. After their father's death they were Indian Traders in New Mexico and Arizona.

Fourty years or more ago I was in the Montezuma Valley in Colo. at that time I had never heard of Dick Wetherill and brothers. While in Post Office a gentleman spoke calling me Mr. Wetherill, said I was in a little early this spring and when did I shave smoothly. I knew he was mistaking me, after telling me that I was Richard he urged that he and I should meet but advised against going to reservation until my coming was known by him. He was shot and killed by an Indian on reservation a few months later in summer. C. Mathers was among the first to go to his wife and care for the body until sheriff arrived. Years later Chal Mathers married my wife's cousin, asked if we Wetherills were related as I looked like them, then I told him of being mistaken at Cortez.

My grandfather Henry Wetherill had a brother John and he had the following children; Wm. Gloyd, Frank, Ira and Julia.

Isaac Wetherill, Chester Pa. said his father was John.

We named our son Ira H. (not knowing Ira was a family name) for Dr. Ira Wetherill, Bluffton, Ohio. We heard from him several years. He told us he had another name sake in Kansas City, Mo. Our son was told by this Ira that he was named for the Bluffton doctor too and what relation they were.

There are but few Wetherills in Kansas City, Mo. This Ira, Leo and a Mrs. Georgia Wetherill Hayes, Kan. City, Kan. who Isaac said visited he and his sister.

Amy Gloyd (dead) Kingsville, Mo. was a sister (?) to Sam Gloyd and brothers, lumbermen K.C., Mo. and Tulsa, Okla. Their father lived in Holden.

Emigrants from England; Sam Wetherill, age 31-bricklayer from Lincolnshire-for Virginia Territory.
Page 86 New Jersey Documents; "The House met-present Peter Kemble-David Ogden, etc. and a message from the house of assembly in the following words was read; "Ordered that Mr. Fisher, Mr. Wetherill, Mr. Leaming (get this) Mr. Hendmann, Mr. Crane and Mr. Tucker be a committee to confer with the committee of the council on the subject matter of his excellency's message concerning the boundary line between the colonies of New Jersey and New York." New Jersey Archives Vol. 18-1st series page 86. Again same book, page 88 Mr. Fisher, Mr. Wetherill from the house of assembly presented for the concurrance of this house a bill entitled "An act to settle the Quotas of the several counties in the country for levying taxes."
Now down through the states along with the Martins I saw this family and for example will show you how I copy from the census bureau old records. This is a late census but have lost the 1810 one I had from Ohio. Samual Wetherill, age 48-farmer-born in Mass.--Rebecca W.; age 40-wife born N.Y. Rosa; 180 N.Y. --George E. 16-- N.Y. Rebecca 14---N.Y. Samuel; age 12-B- N.Y.-- Julia; age 8--B- in Kentucky (shows how they moved to Ky. from Mass. From here they went to Illinois as this is the census 1860--page 271 1st ward Chicago, Cook County, Ill. ---- Lydia age 4-- Ky.
In same census found; John Wetherill age 28-bricklayer from Maryland. Emily; age 28, from Maryland. Sarah J. age 8- Maryland, May; age 6- Md. Annie I. 8-12 years in age Md. Marion Co. Ills. Census 1860. This is just a sample. In my family have spent days and days just on locating branches in all states as far back as 1800 when they first started the census records. They did not name the children then but just the heads of families. I found my family came from the New England states and favored Ky., Virginia and Tenn. for their home but at that located important branches in Ohio, Ind. and Iowa and that is the way yours seem to run. Looks as if they went in where they could get grants of land for war records.
I have been asked to join the Washington D.C. Genealogical Society and feel really honored and only hope can learn a lot more. They say I have sure accomplished a lot in the short time but feel the Library training has helped me more than I ever at first realized. I only took the course one year but that sure aided me. When I hear anything of value at the society or could be of any use I will help you in any thing you desire. I hope to be a full fledged genealogist by fall, and they tell me I can.
Went to the D.A.R. Congress and had some fine times. The head of the C.A.R. Potomac Chapter here that Ruth (my little girl joined) is a very dear friend of mine and she totes me all over. She was also a page. Gov. Perry of Virginia had a box for his family and other D.A.R,'s (I am Mrs. Loaning now) and it made me feel very proud to think he was a cousin. His father and my grandfather were first cousins--their fathers being brothers. He has been grand to me in helping me look up the Perry line. Have it all completed now and my dear mother would have been so proud to have seen this truly wonderful line. He sent me all the data he had and the Utah society completed it for me. Have the Wadsworth line and Wilt line looked up too so just the Martin to finish and I can go to Heaven on my ancestors wings. What a laugh you are getting.
The lunch at the Mayflower was fine but I was bored.

COAT OF ARMS

Orville Witherell has sent some additional information about the Wetheral Coat of Arms:
ARMS: Argent two Lions Passant Sable. On a Chief indented of the last three Covered Cups Or.
CREST: Allion's dexter gamb erased, holding a Covered Cup Or.
MOTTO: "Vi et Copia"
This form is used by the present day families in England.
I have a wax seal made recently in England with the CREST as above and not the demi-lion.
I am enclosing a copy of the Arms which I have been informed is used by the main branch of the family.
ARMS: Argent, Two Lions passant sable, a Chief Gules.
CREST: A demi-lion rampant holding in the dexter gamb a covered cup. Or.
MOTTO: "Vi et copia"
I have a copy of the crest as registered in the College of Heralds which is the demi-lion rampant holding in the dexter gamb a covered cup Or.
As I understand it the latter Arms were the original. At some early date one of the family was a butler to a king and had the 3 covered cups Or. added to the Chief. The color was changed as the CREST was also modified. It is what they call a "difference".
All the above is my understanding of the arms. I have drawn these conclusions as a result of considerable correspondence with members of the family in England. I am not an Heraldic expert and welcome all corrections and additions.
The shape and attitude of the helmet of the first of the above is that of an esquire or gentleman.
That of the second one is not certain and therefore has been drawn symbolic.
On page 9 W.E.N. Wetherell mentioned the plumes. I consider them to the mantel and usually are left to the artist. Quite often they are vert. (green)

You can still get a blue print copy of pattern of the Wetheral Coat of Arms for embroidering bed linen, handkerchiefs, cushions, etc. for the asking. Write me.
If any lady members of the Clan should think it worth while, I shall be glad to make a suitable drawing from which a small cut can be made and used in printing your stationary, and would leave this drawing with an engraving company here and you could send direct and have your cut made. The size would be about 1 inch by one and three eights inches and would cost $3.20 post paid. Write to me if I am here. Otherwise order direct from The Central Engraving Co. 417 Tenth St. Des Moines, Iowa.

Size one and one quarter by one and five eights inches would be same price.

PART II - SUPPLEMENT 1949.

This part includes corrections and additional information to the lists in the 1948 Edition of FAMILIES FROM VILLAGE WETHERAL. Also a number of new lists.

In looking up information, lists or individuals, be sure and consult both editions.

CHANGE IN SYSTEM OF NUMBERING.

Some of the new lists have twelve or more generations, and to use the regular system of numbering would be too cumbersome and confusing. Where such is the case in this supplement, I have tried to simplify this by numbering each generation; then giving each person his individual number, carrying the numbers down through that entire generation.

Where the information about an individual is not extended, I have used a small letter instead of a number. When you refer to one of these, give the parent's number and the letter; as "2;2b" Bryan of Stockton. etc.

In the corrections and additions to the old lists, I use the old system.

Mr Edward A.Witherell,
Dear Sir;
On looking over some papers today was reminded that I had not sent you the record I spoke to you about in Datona last Spring, but find your name is spelled with an "i" whereas the name in our family is Wetherell.

1- William Brewster of the Mayflower.

2- Jonathan " - his son.

3- Grace Brewster (dau. Jonathan Brewster) born at Duxbury, Mass. Nov 1-1639. Married at New London, Conn. Aug 4-1659 to Daniel Wetherell, born at Maidstone, Kent, England. Nov 29-1640. Died at New London, Apr 14-1719. (M-(B1-1.1) Daniel Wetherill).

4- Mary Wetherell (Harris) born Oct 7-1668. Married in 1694, George Denison.
Think this is as far as will interest you. The history of New London gives most of these dates I believe.

Yours sincerely,

Harriet A.McMartin.

WETHERILL.

Additions and corrections sent by (1.3a2) Mrs. Marietta Wetherill, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and (1.3a32) Mrs. Martha Stewart, of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Members of this family were quite active in exploring the ruins of the ancient Americans in Colorado and Arizona. Here are a few short quotations from various publications.

Cliff dwellings of the Mancos Canons; by Frederick H. Chapin.

"It is to Messers Richard and Alfred (Benjamin Alfred) Wetherill, of the village of Mancos, that these new discoveries are chiefly due. They are the owners of large herds of cattle, which roam through the valleys and over the mesas, often straying down into the land of the Utes, whither long rides are required to bring them back to the (cont) settlement. In taking these excursions, Richard especially has discovered many cliff-houses of general interest in Navajo, Moccasin, Acowitz, Cliff and other side canons of the Mancos, and has given many of these abandoned dwellings a careful examination; but all his previous discoveries pale before the remarkable one made on December 8-1888."

Supplement to American Museum Journal, April 1902.

"Richard, the eldest son, was the leader of most of the exploring trips, and it was he, who found, in the Grand Gulch region of south-eastern Utah, the skeletons of an ancient people whose skulls were marked different from those of the Cliff-dwellers, and who names this new people the "Basket Makers".

Department of the Interior. Mesa Verde National Park, Colo. Regulation.

"The largest cliff ruin, known as Cliff Palace, was discovered by Richard and Alfred Wetherill while hunting lost cattle one December day in 1888."

The Mentor, June 1922.

"Roaming beasts and supper calls were forgotten in astonishment for Richard and Alfred Wetherill, cattlemen extraordinary, had thus casually found the abiding place of a people, who, centuries ago, built their homes upon the rock ledges--a people whose origin and passing must ever remain an enigma."

Western Magazine. 1928-29.

"The most outstanding archeological discoveries in the west have been made by stockmen. The Wetherill brothers, looking for cattle that had ~~been~~ strayed into the narrow canons and breaks along the rim of the Mesa Verde, were stunned by a vision that left them speechless.

As they came across the Mesa to the edge of a narrow canon, they saw beneath an overhanging ledge of sandstone, a series of dwellings. The rock walls were in an almost perfect state of preservation. The round towers, above the "Kives" or ceremonial rooms, looked as if they might still be occupied by the sun worshipers of long ago.

The following day, in company with Charles Mason and two Navajo boys, the Wetherills attempted to return to the spot, but owing to their mental condition as a result of their discoveries, they were confused for awhile and for awhile it seemed as if they might never be able to prove their story.

Mason, with one of the Navajo boys, went back over the route to the spot from which today the tourist gets his first glimpse of "Spruce Tree Ruin."

By means of lariats fastened to the trees above, the explorers let themselves down into what has since been considered the most important archeological discovery of the age, and began collecting the pottery, feather cloth and mummies now seen in historical museums."

Traders to the Navajos, by Louisa Wade Wetherill.

"With Al Wetherill he (Charles Mason) visited a few of the houses, reaching houses in which he knew he was the first white man to set foot.

Through the winter of 1888, Al Wetherill camped at the Spring in Cliff Canon below Balcony House. At the end of the winter he came back to the Alamo, telling of a great cliff house which he had seen.

Autum following the Wetherill boys took their cattle into the Mancos Canyon and a little below the mouth of Cliff Canyon Richard and Alfred camped with Charlie Mason. Hunting their cattle they saw against the cliff, the deep shadowed cave and the lifting walls and

WETHERILL.

The following line belongs to the same family, and was sent to me by Joseph K. Wetherill, (2.7682) of Tulsa, Oklahoma. He compiled it largely from information he had received from his aunt, Mrs. Effie Griffith (2.751) of Marion, Indiana.

1. Richard Wetherill; B-in-Rich Hill, County Armagh, Ireland, 1788. D-1869. M-Ann Henvis. Came to U.S. in 1810 and settled in Chester, Pa. Descendants and other information is outlined in 1948 Addition (see page 99 for this branch).

2. Brother of the above Richard and father of the following. At present there is no information on him. It is believed that he never came to the U.S.

2.1 Richard; B-1836 (approx). D-____. Came from Ireland with brothers (Henry Thomas, George & Joseph) to live with their Uncle Richard Wetherill (1) in Chester, Pa. Sometime before 1865. M-1873, Mary Anne Armstrong, of the "Methodist Faith", who came from Ireland in 1870. Richard was a teamster for the Union during the Civil War, being at Little Rock, Ark. in 1865 where he narrowly escaped capture by the Confederates. In 1866 he was living in Leavenworth, Kansas with Benjamin Kite Wetherill (1.3a). Old letters indicate that Richard was in Milwaukee when married. There is no information available beyond his marriage in 1873.

2.2 Hannah Jane; B-1836 (approx); D-____; Came from Ireland at an unknown date for a visit with her brothers. Returned to Ireland, Aug, 1867, where she lived with sister Fanny.

2.3 Frances; B-____; D-____; M-____; Known as Fanny. She had at least one child, a boy, who attended Lisburn School. In 1873 she was overseer in the "Friend's Meeting House" at Bessbrook, Ireland. She and Hannah Jane operated a milliner's shop at an unknown locality in Ireland.

2.4 William; B-____; D-____; M-____; Operated a bakery in Wexford, Ireland. No other information.

2.5 Joseph; B-____; D-May 20-1864; He was very patriotic to the Union during the Civil War. Enlisted in March of either 1861 or 1862. On June 16-1862 he was within 2 miles of the Confederate Camp, being stationed at James Island, S.Carolina (about 5 mi. from Charleston). In 1863 he was in an expedition against Charleston. In a letter of April 19-1863 that he wrote to brother Henry in Prestonville, Kentucky, Joe, in referring to an expedition against Charleston, wrote that, "The Monitors acted in concert with our troops and proved themselves impregnable--they run up past Fort Sumpter without any damage and could have shelled the city of Dupont had they been so inclined." Joe was killed on May 20,1864 in an engagement near Petersburg, Va. He fell while moving forward in a charge. His body was recovered and buried with others who fell with him.

2.6 George; B-____; D-____; M-1868, Anna McKee in Albany, N.Y. Anna came from Ireland in 1867 to visit her brothers who were George's partners in business in Albany. It is believed that George was born in the 1830's. In 1862, he was living in St. Louis. In 1863, he visited brother

(cont) Henry in Prestonville, Ky. It is learned that George and Hannah Jane had been keeping house together in St. Louis in 1864. George was attending the "Iron City Commercial College" in Pittsburgh in 1864. From Pittsburgh, he went to New York City where his address was to have been 80 Allen Street. In 1868 he was in business in Albany with the McKee brothers from North Ireland and, in that year, he married their sister Anna. Later in 1868, they sold the business in Albany. George and Anna intended to strike out for the west, settling in Omaha, Nebraska Territory. In Nov. 1869 they were in Milwaukee. At that time, Anna was considering a visit to Ireland to see her folks. It is believed that she never made the trip. George got into business in Milwaukee, but, in 1872 he moved to Chicago. He attempted to make a living in Chicago by driving a horse and wagon from door to door supplying families with coffee and tea. At this time both he and those to whom he had extended credit were caught in the famous Panic of 1872 and 1873. It became exceedingly difficult for him to feed his wife and three children (2boys and 1 girl). The next information on George is that, in 1884, he and his family were living in St. Joseph, Mo. His 2 boys were home on vacation in that year and daughter Daisy was visiting her uncle, a Mr. Dobson, in Minn. The last information on George was a letter written from Kansas City, Mo. in 1885 to nephew Henry Thomas VI, in which he congratulated Henry on his marriage to Edith Collyer.

(cont.) Prestonville. In 1933, he built his present home in Carrollton, Ky. where he and Gladys now reside.

In 1928, Joe, with Lawrence's help, opened a chicken hatchery in Prestonville. In 1937, it was virtually destroyed by the disastrous flood of that year. Once again the hatchery was rebuilt, only to have it totally destroyed by fire in the following year. In 1936, he had gotten an agency to sell Pontiac automobiles in the territory in order to have a year around business in addition to the hatchery, which was seasonal. In 1938, he managed to again open a hatcher, this time, in a building in Carrollton. They sold it in 1945, and went into the automobile business in Carrollton, with his brother-in-law, Robert H. Martyne, as a partner. In 1948, Joe sold his interest in the business to his partner but remained to assist in its operation.
